DISCUSSIONS

Commissioner Young commended Commissioner South on her leadership during this difficult year. He stated that Warren County performed at the top of the list.

Commissioner Young and Commissioner Ariss thanked Commissioner South for the leadership during the County Wide Text and Map Amendments public hearing process relative to the New Zoning Code.

Commissioner South stated she appreciated their comments and her opinion that it is because of their team efforts that things get accomplished.

Commissioner Ariss stated that he enjoys the working relationship of the Board and appreciates the cooperative effort of all of the Warren County Elected Officials, Townships and Municipalities.

Commissioner Young assumed the leadership position on the Board and reviewed his top three goals for 2012 as follows:

1. Address the space needs within the Warren County Common Pleas Court and Probate-Juvenile Court.
2. Address the needs of the Telecommunications Department relative to the 9-11 System improvements
3. Address the infrastructure needs within Warren County, beginning with the Mason-Montgomery/Fields Ertel Road Area.

Upon motion the meeting was adjourned.

David G. Young, President

Tom Ariss

Pat Arnold South
